

CONGRATULATIONS SIMONE MERRITT

We are excited to announce the promotion of Simone Merritt as the new Senior Vice President of Human Resources for Level 3 Associates effective September 9, 2021.

Simone has been with Level 3 Associates for over 10 years and we can all attest to her dedication and commitment to the company. Simone brings a wealth of experience to her new role of providing strategic leadership in the planning and implementation of quality-based, integrated human resources programs for all faculty and staff of L3A.

A graduate of The University of West Georgia, Simone received her B.A. in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing. She later earned her first M.A. in Human Resource Management from Columbia Southern University; followed by a second M.A. in Organizational Leadership from Columbia Southern University.

In addition to her key strength in human resource information management systems, she also possesses a background in federal contract regulations and compliance, diversity and inclusion, change management, organizational leadership, business operations and finance.

She plans to work closely with departments throughout the company to design and implement the plans that will benefit all employees, and enhance organizational performance and capability.

Let's all congratulate Simone for her efforts and a well-deserved promotion!

Best regards,

-L3A Management
